Rainfall: October was significantly drier and so far November has been slightly drier than normal in East Devon.

Temperatures: October was an average month but so far November has been well above average over the UK and in Payhembury close to record values. Cooler conditions are forecast for the second half of the month though.

Weather elsewhere: Record warm October temperatures in S. Africa of 48.4 degC set the pattern for the warmest year since records began. Flash floods in the south of France caused flooding in Nice. The first named storm of the winter, Abigail, led to flooding in Cumbria on 15 November.
